Gibraltar, March 1.

THIS being Her Majesty's Birth-Day, General Sabine, Governour of this Place, made a splendid Entertainment for all the Commanding and Field Officers in the Garrison. Since the Redemption of the three Genoese Mariners of this Place, taken some Time ago by an Algerine Rover which was driven by bad Weather into this Bay, General Sabine has had the Satisfaction to hear that the rest of the Crew, together with their Vessel and Cargoe, have been restored and set at Liberty by Order of the Dey of Algiers, upon a Representation the General caused to be made to him of the Nature of the Fact, being a direct Violation of the Treaties subsisting between His Britannick Majesty and that State. The Vessel is now at Malaga in her Way hither. Several Ships have been lately lost on these Coasts; and Yesterday arrived here a Ship from Sallee, whose Master reports, that in the late Storms, six Ships were lost at Santa Cruz, with almost all their Crews, of whom none escaped but such as happened to be ashore.

Stockholm, March 10, O. S. The Queen of Sweden grows better every Day, and not having had any Return of her Fever, her Majesty sees the Senators Ladies, and others, in her private Apartment. The King of Sweden's Journey to Cassel is now very much talked of. The Receiver General Lagerspare, who has been under Confinement and Examination this Year and a half, is now ordered to be prosecuted capitally.

The Paymaster of the Lottery Anno 1710, gives Notice, That he hath Money reserved in his Hands to pay off the Annuities on Benefit Tickets which became due at Lady-Day last past.

Custom-House, London, March 16, 1730.
